Curation Is King

90%

of the world's existing data has been created in the last

2 YEARS

By 2020

35 Zettabytes worth of data will be created

*35 Zettabytes = 35,000,000,000,000,000,000 bytes

1/3 of that data will be stored in or will have passed through the cloud
